

Attend to This At Once

PHONE 2734 AND HAVE US CALL

If you want your piano repaired, renovated, tuned, stored and returned to you as near good-as-new as possible.

We can repair your Piano while you are away for the summer, store it for you and deliver on your return. The cost is inexpensive. You do not have to ship your Piano to some repair shop in another city.

THE CABLE COMPANY'S PIANO HOSPITAL IS A COMPLETE OUTLET FOR REPAIRING, OVERHAULING, REMODELING AND THOROUGHLY REFINISHING ALL KINDS—ANY MAKE—OF PIANOS AND ORGANS.

An organization of expert factory workmen, together with every mechanical facility, makes it possible for us to do the work at astonishingly moderate prices.

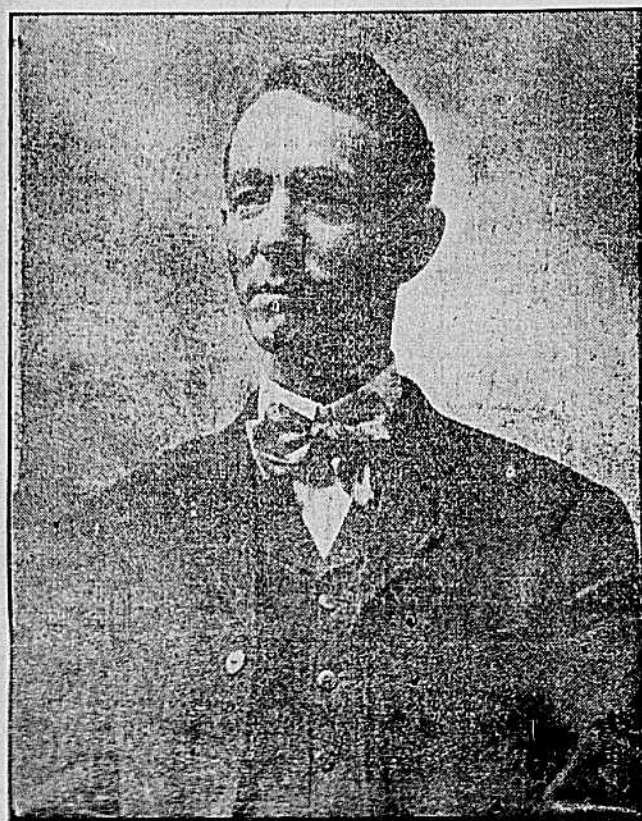

Drop Us a Card or Phone 2734.

And we will send an expert, who will give you prices and all information required.

Ask about our club plan of annual tuning contract.

CABLE PIANO COMPANY, Salesrooms 213 E. Broad Factory 211 North Third

A VIRGINIAN HONORED

R. L. BROWN.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) OXFORD, N. C., June 5.—At a meeting of the directors of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, held in Durham, R. L. Brown, formerly of Danville, Va., was elected assistant superintendent. Mr. Brown was born in Ashland, Va., January 15, 1842, and is the son of the late Rev. Alexander Gustavus Brown, D. D., of the Virginia Conference.

Mr. Brown, it will be remembered, was long connected with Randolph Macon College as its chaplain for two years and as financial agent four years. For fifteen years he was a presiding elder, his connection with the Virginia Conference extending over a period of forty-five years.

R. L. Brown has inherited from his father many of the noble qualities that go to make up a well-rounded character. Nine years ago he removed to Oxford from Danville.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum was established thirty-seven years ago, and is the most potent factor for good in North Carolina. Nearly 400 children are cared for within its walls. Its buildings are almost all new, and of the latest and most approved architecture, the cottage system being used.

For eight years Mr. Brown was superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school here, and was last year elected master of the Masonic Lodge, of which order he has been an officer for many years.

Mr. Brown married Miss Maria T. Balou, of Halifax county, Va.

ZIMMER CHOSEN GRAYS' CAPTAIN

He Succeeds Harrison, Who Was Made Major of Battalion.

A POPULAR CHOICE

Sheriff Galusha Expected Home With Alleged Murderess of Tarbox.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 103 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., June 5.

A called meeting of Company G (Petersburg Grays), Second Regiment, Virginia Infantry, was held in the company's armory last night for the purpose of electing officers to fill vacancies. First Lieutenant William L. Zimmer, Jr., was elected captain to succeed Captain Benjamin Harrison, recently promoted to the position of major of the Second Battalion of the Second Regiment. Second Lieutenant Sidney B. Gill was promoted to the first lieutenant to succeed Captain Zimmer. The company will meet again on Monday night to fill other vacancies caused by the promotion of the above officers. Captain Zimmer, the newly-elected commandant of the company, is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, and is well up in tactics and discipline.

Divulgence Murder Case. Sheriff Galusha, of Dinwiddie county, who went on to Springfield, N. Y., several days ago with a requisition for Mrs. Mary Tarbox, alias Mary Booth, charged with the murder of her alleged husband, Daniel Tarbox, near Church Road, on the 17th of May, has not yet returned with his prisoner. He will probably not get back before the first of the week, and he will take her directly to the county jail. The evidence against the accused woman, while entirely circumstantial, is said to be very strong. She is said, however, to protest her innocence of the crime. The county authorities have collected all the available evidence in the case, including all circumstances that go to create suspicion against her.

Narrow Escape From Death. James Weatherford, a young man residing in the western part of the city, met with an accident this morning by which he received severe injuries. He attempted to jump on a freight train on the Norfolk and Western Railway, near the Battersea crossing, with the view of riding down to the depot. After the passage of the train he was picked up in an unconscious condition, and as soon as possible was hurried to the hospital. His injuries are mostly about the head. The supposition is that he fell or was thrown from the cars.

Another Bad Accident. Ferdinand Harris, a colored man, a carpenter by trade, and living on Commerce Street, was run over about 3:30 o'clock this afternoon near the Union passenger station by the Ocean Shore Limited train, just in from Richmond, en route to Norfolk. Harris had gotten on the train, and as it started for the station he attempted to jump off, but fell upon the track. Both of his legs were crushed under the wheels of the cars, and it is feared that his injuries will prove fatal. He was rushed to the hospital to be placed under surgical treatment.

Death of Well Known Citizen. J. Walter Stiles, about thirty-five years of age, a native and former well known citizen of Petersburg, died this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. J. Nuckols, on First Street, Richmond, where he was visiting. During the past few years Mr. Stiles had lived in New York, where he was engaged in theatrical pursuits. The body will be brought to Petersburg for burial.

Mr. Stiles was a man of fine character, and very popular. He is survived by one brother, Robert G. Stiles, of this city; one sister, Mrs. Nuckols, of Richmond, and numerous relatives.

Personal and Otherwise. Benjamin F. Stewart, a popular young merchant, is ill of fever at his home on Bollingbrook Street.

Heavy rains have fallen almost daily in this section during the past two weeks, and the farmers are complaining of damage to their crops. The lands are saturated and the streams are high.

The Petersburg delegation to the Grand Camp reunion in Memphis left to-night. Many of those appointed as delegates were unfortunately, for various reasons, unable to take the trip. The summer annual to be held at the Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute, near this city, will open on Monday night with about 200 colored teachers present from all sections of the State. Dr. D. Webster Davis, of Stephens, will deliver the opening address.

Children's Day will be observed at Market Street Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday morning. The children of the Sunday-school will have entire charge of the service.

At the Paragon. The high Street Methodist Episcopal Church last night Miss Ella Maud Hoyle and Thomas Rowlett Ford were united in marriage by the Rev. K. J. Joffe.

The baccalaureate service before the graduating class of the Bishop Payne (colored) Divinity School will be delivered to-morrow afternoon in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church by Rev. Henry Delaney, archdeacon of North Carolina.

Nurses Give Dance. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 5.—The first of a series of dances to be given under the auspices of the graduates of the University of Virginia Training School for Nurses was a marked success.

It was a suggestion of Miss M. J. Hurdley, superintendent of the hospital and head of the training school, and the graduating nurses and their pupils were hostesses. The dance took place at the University gymnasium. Among those present were President and Mrs. Alderman, Dr. Stephen H. Warrington, of the hospital; Dr. H. B. Stone, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Minor, Professor and Mrs. Tuttle, and the King's Daughters, of the hospital internes and the medical class of 1909.

PROOF in the Morning! We tell you about how good you'll feel after taking a CASCARET—that millions of people—buy, use and recommend them—But that's talk—you buy a box now—take as directed to-night and get the proof in the morning—After you know CASCARETS you'll never be without them.

CASCARETS are a box for a week's treatment, all druggists, biggest seller, in the world. Millions have a month.

The Man We Sell Clothes To

We're glad if he's an exacting man. Because then he has a natural right and business here.

Copyright 1909 The House of Kuppenheimer Chicago

It's because we sell clothes made by The House of Kuppenheimer—the kind that withstand the most searching criticism—and because our stock includes so many patterns and designs—such a variety of sizes—that, no matter what a man's taste may be, no matter what his figure—his suit is here.

The man we sell clothes to—he's a satisfied man every time—and he carries with him our binding agreement that satisfaction will last.

To the man who chooses to take his time, this store holds out special inducements.

Our salesmen are here to wait upon you—in all that the word "wait" implies.

We appreciate your coming quite too much to speed your going—or to rush you to a decision. Examine, compare, question, change your mind as much as you like.

We're glad to aid you in making a deliberate selection.

Copyright 1909 The House of Kuppenheimer Chicago

We'll enjoy showing you the entirely new line of Spring and Summer clothes which is so complete that it will be easy for you to find the style that suits you best. Our word stands back of every Kuppenheimer model.

We guarantee satisfaction from first to last.

Kuppenheimer's
$18 to $40

D. MAY & CO.
SUCCESSORS TO
J. R. SHEPPARD.
FOURTH AND BROAD STS.

Our Kind
$10 to $20

SOLDIERS' GRAVES ARE DECORATED

Ten Thousand People Attend Memorial Day Exercises at Winchester.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, VA., June 5.—The forty-third annual observance of Confederate Memorial Day in Winchester took place to-day. Ten thousand visitors were present from the Shenandoah and Cumberland valleys. Stone wall Cemetery, where repose the remains of 2,500 of the South's fallen heroes, was beautifully decorated with garlands and flags, the work being in charge of the Turner Ashby Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy. The parade, which included veterans, cadets, the local fire department, school children and bands, was one of the finest ever seen here. There was a touch of sadness felt on all sides, however, as the fast-fading lines of those who were the gray passed through the crowded streets. The parade was in charge of General H. D. Funder, of Martinsburg, commander of the Third Brigade of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, with Thomas S. Chamberlin, Newton Carpenter and Daniel H. Anderson as aides.

A heavy downpour of rain and hail marred the exercises at the cemetery. R. Gray Williams, who was to have been the orator of the occasion, was about to begin his speech when the deluge came, to the discomfort of thousands. Previously, a collection was taken by Commander George W. Kutz, of the Turner Ashby Camp, for the completion of the erection of marble markers to all graves. A generous response was made. To-night, many of the visitors linger, and the streets are thronged.

ODD-FELLOWS' REUNION.

Large Crowd Attends Annual Affair at Woodstock.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WOODSTOCK, VA., June 5.—The annual reunion of the Valley Odd-Fellows was held here to-day, a large crowd being in attendance, and representatives of most of the Valley lodges present. C. Myers, of Harrisonburg, Pa., past grand master of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. R. H. Hamrick, of Stanley, president of the Virginia Rebecca Assembly, made addresses.

Woodstock Camp, Confederate Veterans, to-day designated July 21 as the time for the return of the battle of the Third-Virginia Regiment, which is now in the hands of the Staunton, Va. camp. The occasion will be a memorable one, and speakers of note will be invited to attend.

A YOUTHFUL WRITER.

Play, Work of Richmond Boy's Pen, Is Produced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLES CITY, VA., June 5.—The event of the season in the county was the production at Sherwood Forest, the play written by Master Alden Archer, of Richmond, on Wednesday afternoon. A with a background of the fine old trees. The play, "Thauma," is a legend of the Hartz Mountains in Germany, and is really a literary gem. The cast of characters, Thauma, a spirit, was played by Alden Archer, and the young actors played with a degree of talent and taste that was quite remarkable. A good crowd was in attendance, and the universal verdict was that the rare sylvan scene and charming little players were equally unique and delightful.

Child Shoots Himself.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 5.—While playing with a revolver this morning, Lily Washington, the eleven-year-old daughter of James Washington, a colored man, shot herself in the face. The ball penetrated her brain, causing instant death.

MEMORIAL TABLET UNVEILED AT V. M. I.

A Tribute of Fellow-Students to Cadet Ferebee, Killed in Football Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., June 5.—The tablet erected to the memory of Cadet George Cooke Ferebee, of Norfolk, who was killed October 30, 1908, on the football field at the Virginia Military Institute in a game with Roanoke College, was formally unveiled in the V. M. I. Library Friday night, the address being made by Dr. Charles Manly, pastor of the Lexington, Baptist Church.

The tablet is of bronze, and is beautifully designed, representing in bas-relief the portals of an ancient Greek temple. On the center of the tablet, between Ionic-Corinthian columns, which stand out in relief on either side, appears the inscription:

1909.
In Memoriam
GEORGE COOKE FEREBEE, of Norfolk, Va.
Born April 6, 1890.
Died October 30, 1908.

A student of only a few months, with a proud record already established as soldier, student and Christian gentleman. He fell mortally hurt at football on the field of alma mater.

Erected by the Corps of Cadets. This is the first instance of a memorial having been erected to a college student, falling on battlefield, by his fellows. The tablet was paid for by contributions from the corps of cadets, and expresses the esteem in which the young man was held by his comrades.

In his address Dr. Manly emphasized three points: That this is the first instance of the death of a cadet from injuries sustained on the athletic field at the V. M. I.; that Cadet Ferebee was a fine specimen of physical manhood, and was universally popular; that he was an earnest Christian man, whose life was clean and open.

11 o'clock to-day, and at the Tabernacle Baptist Church at 3 P. M. Rev. C. E. Stuart, superintendent of the Southeastern District, will speak at his former church, Venable Street, at 11 A. M., and at Weatherford Memorial Church, Manchester, at 8 P. M.

WILL ENTERTAIN DRUGGISTS.

Greenboro Preparing to Receive State Association.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., June 5.—There are over thirty licensed pharmacists in Greensboro, and the local Druggists' Association, of which Max T. Payne is secretary, has completed arrangements for the entertainment of the State Pharmaceutical Association, which meets here June 23, 24 and 25.

The Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and the Elks' Club will affiliate with the druggists' organization and insure to the visitors the time of their lives in the way of whole-souled hospitality. The sessions this year promise to be unusually interesting, and the attendance is expected to surpass any former convention in the history of this organization.

RIVER ON RAMPAGE.

Cape Fear Does Heavy Damage to Bridge Company.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., June 5.—Owing to recent heavy rains, Cape Fear River is rapidly rising, and at 7 o'clock was thirty-five feet high. The river is now rising five inches an hour, but is expected to recede before morning, though it is thought that the flood may reach a height of forty feet. The scaffolding used in building the new steel bridge across the river at this point was swept away last night, entailing a heavy loss on the Oswego Bridge Company, the constructors. The trolley lacking at the ferry being also wrecked, the only means of communication with the east side of the river is the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad bridge.

HEAVY DAMAGE BY STORM.

Colored Almshouse Burned and Woman Meets Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 5.—One of the most violent storms ever experienced here occurred last night. Half fell in quantities, but was not large enough to do much damage. Wind was high, rain fell in sheets, lightning was vivid and thunder almost incessant while the storm lasted. During the height of the storm lightning set fire to the building occupied by the colored inmates on the city almshouse, property, and Mary Fox, a colored woman, aged fifty-five years, was burned to death. The other inmates were gotten out. It is believed that the woman was either stunned or killed by the lightning. The building was insured and will be rebuilt.

Lightning Strikes Barn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 5.—During the wind storm last night lightning struck the stable on "Woodland" farm in Orange county, belonging to ex-Mayor M. G. Willis, of this city. The stable and five mules, the latter valued at $1,000, one horse and colt valued at $250, all the harness, saddles, several tons of hay and other property were destroyed. The loss was heavy, and there was only a small insurance on the building.

WRITERS WILL MEET.

Press Association to Hold Session at Rockbridge Almshouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FARMVILLE, VA., June 5.—The Virginia Press Association will hold its twenty-first annual meeting at the Rockbridge Almshouse, commencing on Tuesday, July 13. The meeting promises to be one of much interest to the members. Papers will be presented by men prominent in the profession, and at the conclusion of the business sessions, side trips will be taken to some of the nearby resorts. The hotel management is arranging an elaborate program for the entertainment of the association during its stay.

early this morning, R. C. Ryan, an extra freight brakeman, was so badly injured that he died shortly after his admittance to Salisbury Hospital, where he was taken after the accident. His body was hurled in the air and thrown some distance. His head was mashed and he received internal injuries.

MANNING SWORN IN.

He Takes Oath of Office as Judge of Supreme Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DURHAM, N. C., June 5.—Hon. James S. Manning was sworn in here this morning at 10 o'clock as Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court, having been appointed by Governor Kitchin to succeed Judge Connor, who went to the Federal bench. The oath was administered in Manning & Foushee's office in the presence of a few personal friends. The Bible used was given to Judge Manning by his father, March 5, 1871.

A Norfolk Charity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., June 5.—The announcement is made that the Sea Rest Cottage, recently founded for the use of poor girls, in spending their vacations and for the poor convalescing from noncontagious or infectious diseases, will open at Ocean View on June 15. It is the latest Norfolk charity, and is destined to be popular. It is also a fact that the cottage will form a charity of inestimable benefit to the poor.

Aged Woman's Awful Fall.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., June 5.—Mrs. Susan Mumpard, aged eighty-six years, fell from the second story window at the home of her nephew, S. S. Mansford, near Coyner's Springs, to-day, and broke her neck, causing her death in a few minutes.

Physicians who practice electrical treatment say that such electric fans is the best cure for insomnia or sleeplessness, and that its gentle breezes on the hottest nights will contribute largely to the pleasure of any one's rest.

The ancients had slaves who stood and fanned them all night while masters or mistresses slept. Some time one of these slaves got sleepy and dropped the big fans on the sleeper. The result was a beating and loss of sleep. Nowadays an electric fan in the home never sleeps and never falls on one. There is no loss of sleep. On the other hand, the gentle breezes of the electric fan soon lull one into a sweet repose.

BEING FANNED INTO SLEEPINESS

Physicians who practice electrical treatment say that such electric fans is the best cure for insomnia or sleeplessness, and that its gentle breezes on the hottest nights will contribute largely to the pleasure of any one's rest.

The ancients had slaves who stood and fanned them all night while masters or mistresses slept. Some time one of these slaves got sleepy and dropped the big fans on the sleeper. The result was a beating and loss of sleep. Nowadays an electric fan in the home never sleeps and never falls on one. There is no loss of sleep. On the other hand, the gentle breezes of the electric fan soon lull one into a sweet repose.

BEING FANNED INTO SLEEPINESS

Physicians who practice electrical treatment say that such electric fans is the best cure for insomnia or sleeplessness, and that its gentle breezes on the hottest nights will contribute largely to the pleasure of any one's rest.

The ancients had slaves who stood and fanned them all night while masters or mistresses slept. Some time one of these slaves got sleepy and dropped the big fans on the sleeper. The result was a beating and loss of sleep. Nowadays an electric fan in the home never sleeps and never falls on one. There is no loss of sleep. On the other hand, the gentle breezes of the electric fan soon lull one into a sweet repose.

BEING FANNED INTO SLEEPINESS

Physicians who practice electrical treatment say that such electric fans is the best cure for insomnia or sleeplessness, and that its gentle breezes on the hottest nights will contribute largely to the pleasure of any one's rest.

The ancients had slaves who stood and fanned them all night while masters or mistresses slept. Some time one of these slaves got sleepy and dropped the big fans on the sleeper. The result was a beating and loss of sleep. Nowadays an electric fan in the home never sleeps and never falls on one. There is no loss of sleep. On the other hand, the gentle breezes of the electric fan soon lull one into a sweet repose.

BEING FANNED INTO SLEEPINESS